Boyd, I've been terrible in Hess's class
but the friends and people I met in this class were great! Sorry you were moved to the other side of the room.
It's been nice being in a class
with you.
Be good.
Cathy
Purdy

Boyd,
It has been a pretty good year in Algebra & Study Hall and I've been great knowing you. Don't get too much too this summer.

ACCOLADE

In the Accolade we have attempted to catch in part the spirit of our life at Cave Spring High School during the year 1967-68. The good times and the bad . . . New Teachers . . . learning two sets of room numbers . . . The confusion and uncertainty of the move . . . first, September, October, November, December and finally January 2 . . . learning another locker combination . . . orange, blue, grey, brown, green . . . snow, snow, snow, twenty-five inches of the white stuff . . . ice covered streets and forty minute waits in Penn Forest . . . the first game in the new gym . . . the pleasure of tasks well done . . . preparation for the prom . . . fellowship in studies and play . . . competition on the athletic field . . . and finally graduation. All of these have found a place in our yearbook. We hope that each of you, in future years, will find the Accolade a joyful part of the memories of bygone days.

With Admiration to You Mr. "T"

The 1968 Accolade pauses to honor a man whose name has been linked with Cave Spring High School for many years. His busy hours are filled with patience for his students, and his sharp individual wit brightens the longest of class periods. He is a teacher who represents others like himself who are doing work for the future well-being of both the students and the school.

Mr. Tisinger pushes ticket sales.

The ORIGINAL Mr. Tisinger.

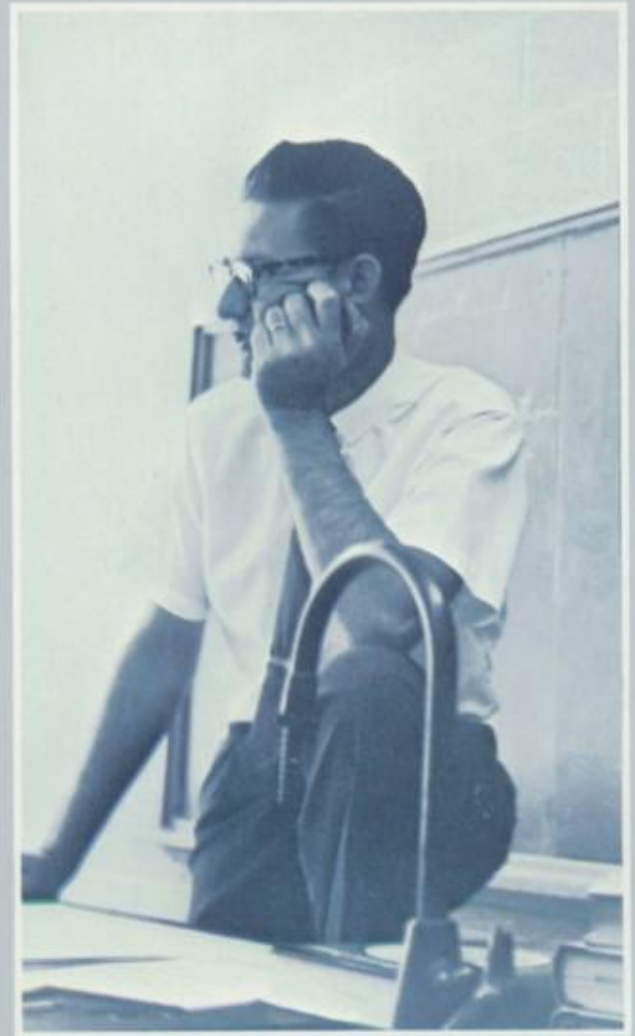

"See you in three days."

"Floor or no floor we have to use that gym."

"Often moving changes our eating habits."

Mr. Tisinger the dreamer.

He lends a sympathetic ear as he administers just rewards and punishments when we accumulate too many demerits. He supervises the maintenance of the school building and serves as Athletic Director, arranging all athletic events. His office is his central working area, but his work is everywhere, in teaching, in guidance, and in athletics.

The Annual Staff proudly dedicates the 1968 Accolade to MR. RICHARD L. TISINGER.

Mr. Tisinger confers with Mr. Hammes and Mr. Lindsey about the 67-68 football schedule.

Practice for the Business World

The business world will be ahead for many students upon graduation from CSHS. In order to better prepare for the different vocational challenges which will arise, the FBLA has helped to prepare these boys and girls who will enter the business profession. Through the FBLA the members learn some of the things that will be expected of them in business establishments.

Sponsored by Mrs. June Carper, the FBLA took field trips to various businesses and strove for "Service — Education — Progress".

In Night of Knights.

"Only Once in a Lifetime Are You 10-0."

END COACH,
MR. QUILLEN

Coaches deliver inspiration during half-time.

LINE COACH,
MR. LINDSEY

It all began on August 10, when Coach Hammes walked into the field house dressing room where a crowd of boys, fresh from the "old swimming hole" and general summer loafing, had assembled to try out for the '67 football team. Picking up a piece of chalk, Coach Hammes wrote in huge figures on the chalkboard: "10-0"; then turning to the boys, he said, "This is what we are going to make it this season. In football, winning isn't the most important thing; it is the ONLY thing." His continuing lecture sounded as though there was no choice. It had to be 10-0!

As the seriousness of this challenge began to sink in, each player seemed to take upon himself the responsibility of seeing that Coach Hammes got his 10-0 season.

A fearsome defensive team with its tough men up front saw that the hard running offensive team got the ball in good field position. It seemed as though the opponent just ran out of the way of this massive defense.

No player or players can be singled out for top honors for this great season. It was definitely the result of tremendous team effort. As Coach Hammes so often said, "This team is full of unsung heroes. This is a victory of a team — not just a few individuals."

November 3 — the night that the Knights had waited for. They had seen the handwriting on the wall — or on the chalkboard — and had come through A PERFECT SEASON.

Coaches come to aid of troubled Knight.

Deepest appreciation expressed to these three men.

At the beginning of the 1967-68 basketball season, Cave Spring High was picked to finish Number One in the Blue Ridge District. At the end of the regular season on February 16, the Knights had borne out this prediction with a 15-3 overall record — undefeated in District play. During this time, they inaugurated the new gymnasium on January 30 with a triumph over William Byrd. The Knights took the title in stride, and set their sights toward higher goals in the I-B Tournament. Hustle and scrappy play, combined with a weekly game hero, have overcome a deficit in height and poor shooting average to make this team one that will long be remembered.

Bayd - Dear 46

I couldn't decide where to write, so I should I say a place large enough for all the things I want to write.

Believe it or not you are one of the few people I think I'll always love, really! For many things!

Remember all those times we talked about Bobby — and those times at Richards' after the drive-ins & I cried — come to think about it — what about the drive-ins! I remember that party at your house — Agnes' house (the car) Richards' house, Martha's house, another at your house, & Ray & Lynnes. Cliff left on August 30 —

Kay had a few accidents & had a swimming party. Remember all those games at the corner — Remember the lucky niding in the parking lot — Although I remember all of this — ~~most~~ of all I remember you!

P.S.

Hope I will try to make this summer as good as last — but then with you — It can only be better!

Love
Dave Noel & I forever

Our Knight — Sir Gilbert

Last Spring Linda Branstetter competed in the local Driving Rodeo Contest; and, winning recognition, she proceeded to the State Rodeo. In State-wide competition, Linda took Third Place, and forged onward to represent the State of Virginia in the Nationals. In all three contests, she underwent a series of rigid obstacle courses, road tests, and written examinations. Linda gained momentum, and in the National Rodeo, she placed Third, receiving a J.C. thousand dollar scholarship, a 1968 Cougar for a year, and glory for Cave Spring High. Linda travels throughout the United States, lecturing to High Schools, colleges, and civic groups in a safety presentation.

Steve competed in local competition and at the State represented Virginia. He placed First in the State and won Sixth place in the Nation in the Boys' Division of the Rodeo.

We, the students, would like to commend and congratulate Linda and Steve for their outstanding accomplishments.

ONE ACT PLAY: THE OTHERS

In March each high school in the Blue Ridge District enters a play in the ONE ACT PLAY FESTIVAL at Roanoke College. This competition is part of the Virginia High School League's program to further student interest in the fine arts. This year, the Cave Spring Thespians took THE OTHERS, written by Miss Lander, to the festival. The title serves a two-fold purpose; it indicates the inability of the two main characters to be part of the active social life of the college "in" crowd, and it also recognizes the fact that, while speaking forced pleasantness, people are often thinking other comments.

The participants in the play are: Robin Reincker, Bob Henderson, Cindy Williams, and Scott Atkin.

"And you wonder why we need a new trophy case?"

J.V. coach, Dick Travis, receives a trophy from the undefeated J.V. team as a token of their appreciation of his hard work.

Carl Hosp is awarded the J.V. Lineman trophy.
